

Certification of personal data (CPD)

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 10 August 2010 21:34 - Last Updated Tuesday, 11 March 2014 20:49

Certification of personal data (henceforth CPD) is a documentary evidence of the registered participants / users of the portal - members of the AUNGO "Association - My Family" of their personal data in order to provide potential donors and sponsors a proven and reliable information about the person - father, mother or foster father or foster mother of family-type children's home or a foster family.

Depending on the type of confirmed data the certificate has its own level, which means the following:

- No data is confirmed.

- Attested: Telephone;

- Attested: Email; Telephone;

- Attested: Email; Telephone; Passport;

- Attested: Email; Telephone; Documents of FTCH/FF;

- Attested: Email; Telephone; Passport; Documents of FTCH/FF;

- Attested: Email; Telephone; Passport; Documents of FTCH/FF; Bank details.

Family-type children's homes and foster families with attestation certificate level 7 can further approve their needs documentarily by providing photos, videos, checks, issued invoices, etc. for targeted assistance through the AUNGO "Association - My Family".

Also for families with Certificate Attestation of level 7 additional opportunities are also provided to take targeted assistance through AUNGO "Association - My Family" on account or by direct payment of needs, after providing all the necessary data accounts in payment systems by them, due to updating of the registration form, which is available after authorization at the portal in the "Custom Menu" -> "Your data" - the section "Extras".